

Senate Crisis On Districting Gets Up Steam

LANSING (AP) — Stoked by Gov. George W. Romney's angry attack on 10 Senate Republicans as "political quislings" who endanger their party, Michigan's redistricting crisis was building up a new head of steam today.

The effects of the Romney speech at the GOP State Convention in Grand Rapids Saturday were yet to be determined as the legislature returned from what had begun as a five-day "cooling off" recess.

A five-man committee named by the Senate GOP caucus last week reported "tentative agreement" Monday on a new Congressional districting plan.

At the same time, the Michigan Supreme Court was asked to consider a new plan for legislative reapportionment.

Introduction of a new Congressional plan in the Senate could provide the test of whether Romney succeeded or failed in the speech that observers saw as a clear bid for leadership of his party in the legislature.

The committee had been formed in an attempt to resolve the differences which saw so-called "conservatives" of the Senate GOP group form a coalition with Democrats to push Congressional and legislative redistricting plans through the Senate, against the wishes of Romney and the so-called GOP "moderates."

The committee's progress was reported Monday by Sen. Kent Lundgren, R-Menominee, the only member of the coalition present Saturday when Romney issued his charge that "political quislings and know-nothings" were trying to use the party to promote their own ends.

In a special message earlier last week, the governor had called for action on both legislative and Congressional redistricting before the legislature breaks camp for the summer.

Tied to these issues are numerous changes in the 1964 election schedule, to avert what elections officials call "chaos."

Raid On Union's Pension Fund By Hoffa Charged

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, and seven co-defendants raided a Teamsters pension fund in order to help Hoffa out of personal financial difficulties, the federal government charged Monday in U.S. District Court.

In his opening statement of the mail fraud and conspiracy trial of the eight defendants, Charles Z. Smith, special assistant U.S. attorney, said the government would prove that they fraudulently arranged $25 million in loans from the pension fund over a 4½-year period.

Smith told a jury of eight men and four women that $1 million of that amount was diverted to the defendants' own use.

The jury and four alternates were selected after two weeks of examining prospective jurors during which nearly 600 veniremen were questioned.

Smith said the loans were part of a scheme to help extricate Hoffa from personal financial difficulties stemming from his involvement in a housing project for retired persons in Brevard County, Fla., called Sun Valley Inc.

Smith, a tall, bespectacled Negro, told the jury Hoffa used his influence to obtain fraudulent loans in return for which the defendants received kickbacks in the form of fees, stock options and stock interest.

Hoffa is a trustee of the Central States, Southeast and Southwest Area Pension Fund which has its headquarters in Chicago.

Rep. Cannon, 85, House Dean Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., veteran chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, died today. He was 85.

A peppery and agile figure despite his age and slight stature—he was only a 140-pounder—Cannon was dean of the House in point of age at the time of death.

He had been a member since 1922 and was outranked in service only by Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga.

Associates said he had been active and apparently in top health through last week, but had complained Sunday of not feeling well.

Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., shepherded a supplemental appropriation bill through the House Monday at Cannon's request—a chore Cannon normally would have performed for himself.

Under the congressional seniority system Mahon, as the Democrat with the longest service on the Appropriations Committee behind Cannon, succeeds to the chairmanship.

Actually Cannon's Washington service extends long back of his tenure in the House.

Speedy Pyramid Climber Kissed By Khrushchev

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt's champion pyramid climber streaked to the top of the Great Cheops Pyramid a minute faster for Soviet Premier Khrushchev than he did for Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

Chou gave him a fountain pen five months ago. Khrushchev gave him four kisses.

"A kiss is worth a thousand pounds," said the climber, Hefnawi Abdel Fayad. "Furthermore, I was happier to meet Khrushchev and I like him more."

The 32-year-old Maurer walked away from his post as a trusty at the hospital's fire department early Monday.

Maurer was 18 when committed to the hospital in the 1951 slaying of his mother, Daisy, 42, and his sister, Janet, 11. The murder weapons were a Boy Scout axe and a hunting knife.

Accused Axe Killer Drowns

IONIA (AP)—State police Det. Edward Goss said today the death by drowning of accused axe murderer Kenneth Lee Maurer was a suicide.

Maurer's cement-weighted body was found Monday night in the reservoir at the State Hospital for the Criminally Insane. Two cement blocks were tied to the body with ropes at the waist and feet, Goss said.

"The autopsy showed no bruises," said Goss, "and all of the knots were tied loosely in front. From all indications he could have freed himself at any time."

The 32-year-old Maurer walked away from his post as a trusty at the hospital's fire department early Monday.

Maurer was 18 when committed to the hospital in the 1951 slaying of his mother, Daisy, 42, and his sister, Janet, 11. The murder weapons were a Boy Scout axe and a hunting knife.

The youth was captured in Florida in January of 1955, and sent to the hospital a month and a half later.

Secrecy Shrouds Plans For Anti-Castro Revolt

Voting Starts On Antipoverty Bill Revision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The crucial voting on amendments to President Johnson's antipoverty bill is expected to begin today in the House Education and Labor Committee.

Democratic members of the committee have been meeting in caucus for a week to iron out their position on a series of amendments. They are reported in full agreement on all but one.

The one area of discord centers on the role of parochial schools and agencies should play in the local administration of the program.

Activities begin today with a meeting of the committee's special subcommittee on poverty. It is expected to approve the bill and send it to the full committee, which then will consider the series of amendments.

Republicans have complained loudly over the Democratic caucus meetings. They have cried "lockout" and "partisanship."

The committee's ranking Republican, Rep. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, has expressed fears about an attempted steamroller by the Democrats.

"We hope we will not be faced with the proposition of making immediate decisions," Frelinghuysen said Monday and added: "We're still optimistic that our views will be received."

Frelinghuysen and other Republicans say they want the bill changed, first, to eliminate what they call a new federal agency of poverty, and, second, to allot funds to the states and let them administer the program.

Sen. Goldwater Gains Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater appears to be piling up backlog support among publicly uncommitted delegates which could strengthen his bid for a first-ballot Republican presidential nomination.

If the Arizona senator wins the June 2 California primary and adds that state's 86 convention votes to his total, his strategists now believe he will come close to having 600 of the 655 needed for the nomination.

If the state-by-state roll call of the 1,308 delegates at the San Francisco convention indicates Goldwater is headed toward a figure only a few short of the magic total, his supporters believe there will be some quick shifts made in his direction.

They point to Wisconsin, far down the roll-call line, as a likely source of Goldwater support in such circumstances. The state's 30 votes are pledged to Rep. John W. Byrnes in a favorite son holding operation.

This served its principal purpose when it kept major contenders out of the state primary, in which Democrats could cross over. Goldwater delegates probably won't feel they have any further obligation to Byrnes if the Arizona senator needs them.

Total Of 92 Dead In 4 Military Plane Crashes

MANILA (AP) — Ninety-two persons were dead or missing today following four military plane crashes around the world. Most of the victims were American military personnel.

A fifth plane, a U.S. Air Force supersonic fighter, crashed in the Philippines today but the pilot parachuted to safety.

The four fatal crashes occurred Monday in the Philippines, off Spain, in southern England and in Alabama.

At Clark Air Base north of Manila, a U.S. Military Air Transport jetliner with 83 persons aboard crashed short of a runway and burst into flames. Seventy-three persons died in the wreckage and another two died in the base hospital.

Cause Is Mystery
The other victim was an American serviceman riding in a taxi which the plane struck as it headed for the runway, the Air Force said.

The eight people on board who survived the crash were in the base hospital. The Filipino cab driver and another American passenger in the taxi also were hospitalized.

Aboard the four-engine C135 were 9 Air Force crewmen, a flight nurse, 48 Air Force passengers, 19 Navy men, 4 Coast Guardsmen and 2 Nationalist Chinese.

"I don't think anybody knows what caused this thing," an Air Force spokesman said. "There was nothing in the plane's behavior that could give a clue to any mechanical failure."

No indication of distress came from the pilot as he brought the big jet in from Hickam Air Base, Hawaii.

First For C-135

Landing in a rainstorm, the plane struck a 42-foot antenna-like aircraft navigational aid just inside the base fence, hit the taxi on a road running along the base perimeter, and broke up in flames.

The C135 was on a troop airlift mission from Travis Air Base, Calif. It was to return sick and injured personnel to the United States.

The Air Force said the crash was the first involving a C135 in the Western Transport Air Force, and only the second for a MATS C135 in more than 75 million miles the service has flown the big planes since June 1961.

In the other fatal crashes:

A 24-hour air and sea search failed to find the 10 crewmen of a U.S. Navy long-range patrol plane that crashed at sea 20 miles off Cadiz, Spain. The plane, based at Jacksonville, Fla., was taking part in maneuvers off the U.S. Polaris submarine base at Rota, Spain.

Four crewmen were killed in the crash in southern England of a British Vulcan bomber, one of a type that can carry Britain's H-bombs. Two crewmen parachuted and were injured.

A U.S. Air Force C119 carrying 43 student paratroopers to a jump zone made a crash landing in a field near Searle, Ala. Two men were killed.

Five Michigan Airmen Perish In Manila Crash

By The Associated Press
"It is with deep regret that I officially inform you that your son is missing as a result of an airplane accident at Clark Air Force Base in Manila, the Philippines."

Families of five Michigan airmen in Port Huron, Flint, Fowlerville and the Detroit area received these telegrams Monday.

They were signed by Air Force Gen. G. B. Green. The wires notified parents their sons were among passengers who were killed but listed as missing until their bodies could be identified. The military transport crash killed 74.

The Michigan victims: Airman 2.C. Ronald E. Stine, 24, whose wife, Janice, 23, lives in Port Huron. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. Stine of Port Huron.

Stine was graduated from St. Stephen's High School and joined the Air Force in April, 1963. He returned home five weeks ago for the birth of his first child, Robert Edward. Relatives said he left Michigan Saturday for reassignment in the Philippines.

Airman 1.C. Benjamin M. Buck, the son of Luther H. Buck of Flint. Also reported missing was his wife of two years, Airman 1. C. Dorothy R. L. Buck, a native of Davenport, Iowa.

Airman 2. C. Edward M. Hiner, 21, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewell M. Hiner of Fowlerville.

Hiner was graduated from Fowlerville High School in June, 1962, and joined the Air Force in December, 1962. Relatives said he left Michigan Saturday to return to Clark AFB after a 30-day leave.

Airman 2.C. David Richard B. Hebda, 20, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Hebda of Wyandotte.

Hebda, who was graduated in January, 1962, from high school, joined the Air Force in February.

Airman 2.C. Virgil David DeGrace, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil DeGrace of Dearborn.

DeGrace, formerly stationed at Calumet, Mich., left Thursday for assignment in the Philippines. He was graduated from a Detroit high school in June, 1962, and joined the Air Force in January, 1963.

Wallace Visit Stirs Up Melee

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—An outburst of violence in the wake of a presidential campaign speech by Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace left this center of racial strife in the grip of new tensions today.

Two demonstrators and five National Guardsmen were injured in a melee touched off Monday night when about 200 singing, hand-clapping integrationists tried to march on the arena where Wallace had spoken.

They met a cordon of some of the 400 National Guardsmen hurried into this sensitive spot just to prevent such an act.

Wallace had already left the town of 12,600. He had addressed about 1,500 supporters in his campaign in the May 19 Democratic primary and was applauded more than 40 times during a 45-minute speech attacking the civil rights bill pending in the Senate.

Balked by guardsmen wearing gas masks and holding rifles with fixed bayonets, the integrationists squatted in the street and sang "We Shall Not Be Moved."

Guardsmen used tear gas to disperse them, arrested 14 and slapped an 11 p.m. curfew on the city.

Exiles Predict Fighting Inside Cuba May 20

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Talk of impending military action against Fidel Castro gained momentum today in this Cuban exile capital, but plans, if any, were shrouded in secrecy.

Officials of anti-Castro groups, while not denying that something was in the air, were tight-lipped in contrast with the ill-fated 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion. They spoke of a long guerrilla war, sabotage, infiltration and hopes for defection of Castro's armed forces.

Twiz "Will Grow"

Rogelio Cisneros, newly named chief in Exile of Revolutionary Junta—JURE—returned from a conference in Puerto Rico with Manuel Ray, who has promised to be fighting inside Cuba by May 20, Cuban independence day.

Cisneros was silent about his talk with Castro's former Havana underground head, now designated JURE's chief inside Cuba. Ray founded JURE.

A spokesman pointed to JURE's emblem, a twig. "It is small, but it will grow," he explained.

Another activist group, Revolutionary Recovery Movement—MMR—reported it is mailing out English translations of a speech by its head, Bay of Pigs leader Manuel Artime, predicting "a long, hard war full of blood and sacrifice."

Regime "Near End"

He was quoted in his March 18 address to an exile group as comparing Castro's forces to Goliath and his to David.

Revolutionary Unity Movement, a large anti-Castro organization, published a coupon in its official publication urging Castro's militiamen and soldiers to defect.

The coupon, to be mailed to Cuba by exiles, says: "The Communist regime is near its end. When that moment arrives, the most responsible figures will try to flee, a flight already prepared, but they won't include you."

The message to Castro's servicemen added: "Take note what happened in Brazil. Joao Goulart (deposed president) fled in time, and left others behind, abandoned to their fate."

EXPLOSIVE PROBLEM

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk warned the Western allies today that Cuba is an explosive problem presenting the danger of another world-shaking crisis.

Rusk told the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Council that the United States is determined to continue aerial reconnaissance of Cuba. He declared that any attempt by Prime Minister Fidel Castro to interfere could create a severe problem.

He said he could see where it would be a serious matter for the other side as well, and pointed out a crisis could develop into one as serious as the confrontation of October, 1962, over Soviet missiles in Cuba.

The secretary was seeking NATO support for the U.S. trade embargo of the Communist island, a customer of such major American allies as Britain and France.

Opening the three-day spring meeting of the NATT Council of Foreign Ministers, Rusk declared that all Communist aggression must be eradicated to insure the security of the non-Communist world. This appeared to be a reference to South Viet Nam as well as Cuba.

Rusk described a crisis over Cuba as one for the whole Western world not just for the United States.

Washington, he explained, could not tolerate Castro's efforts to subvert the rest of the hemisphere. Castro's regime must be isolated politically, economically, socially and spiritually from the rest of the hemisphere, he added.

Most people don't realize how low Chrysler's new prices really are. Do you?

We find that many people think a Chrysler is a high-priced car.

Quite frankly, some models are.

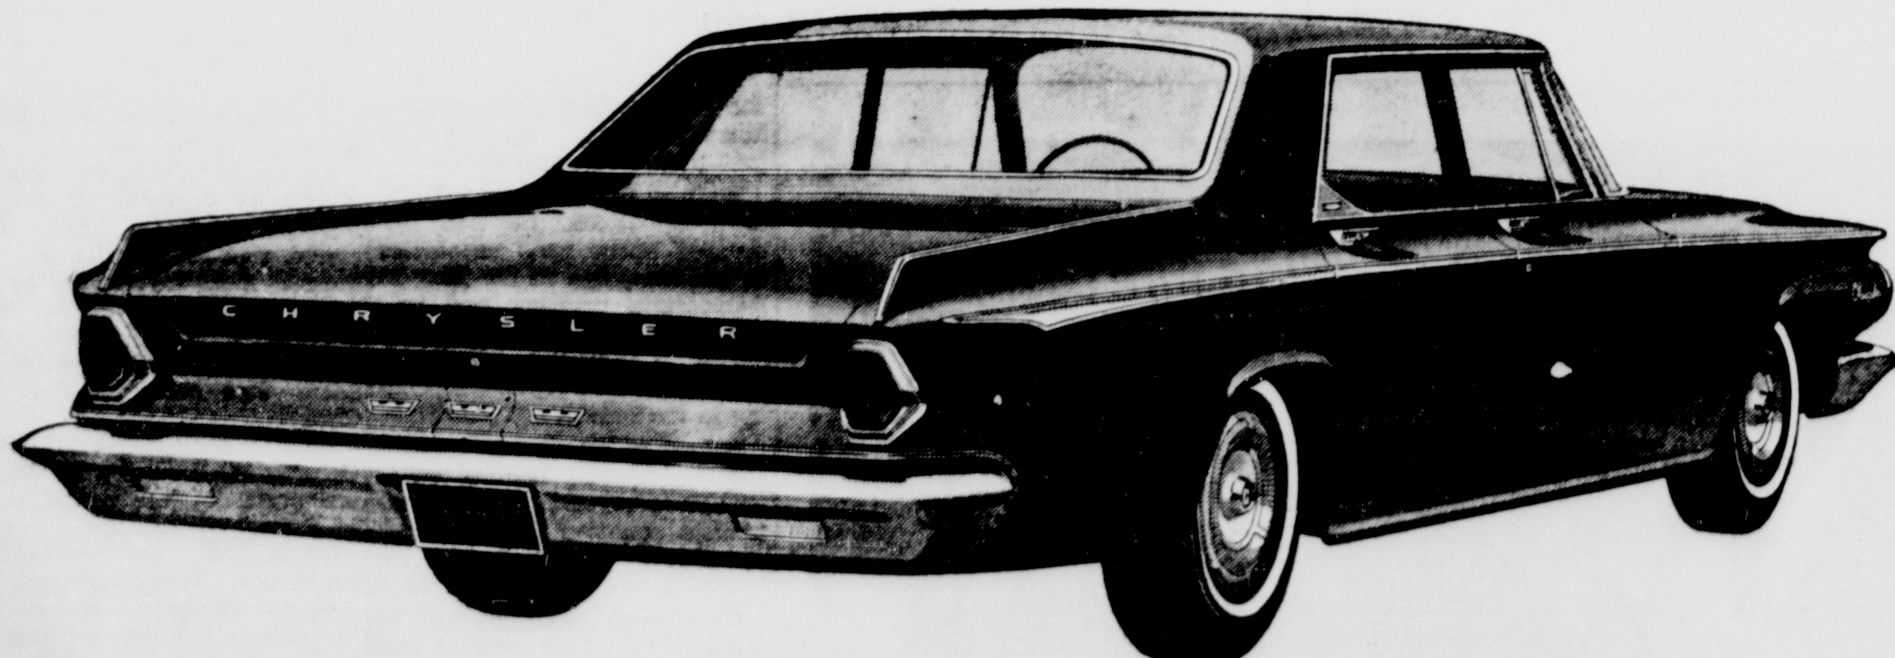

But what many people don't realize is that some Chrysler models are actually priced lower than a small car equipped the way you'd want it.

Take the Chrysler Newport sedan. Manufacturer's suggested retail price is only $2901, not including the variables like state and local taxes, destination charges and optional equipment. That's $2901—which includes such good things as a 361-cubic-inch V-8. The kind of engine you'd pay extra for on a smaller car.

Interesting, isn't it?

Then why stick with the smaller jobs? They can't muster the room, the ride, the luxury or the performance you really want—no matter how many extra-cost options you put on them.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Enjoyed By Large Crowd

RAPID RIVER — The Mother and Daughter banquet sponsored by Men's Fellowship of Rapid River Congregational Church was well attended. The tables decorated with green and yellow streamers and yellow daffodils were a picture of spring.

Invocation was given by Howard Kuehn, program chairman. After the banquet meal an entertaining program was given. Shirley Kuehn's reading of "Love's Window," by Ethel Bovey told the story of mother's love. A saxophone quartet from Perkins, Susan Demeuse, Myra Miljour, Linda Fuhrman, and Charlene Lauscher entertained with accomplished selections. "The Ballad of the Harp Weaver" by Edna St. Vincent Millay was Carol Bowen's tribute to mothers. The "Misfits," Gladstone vocal quartet, Donna Young, Linda Kockberg, Susan Nyberg, and Diane Sjoquist, amused the crowd with their perky outfits and songs. Mr. Kuehn presented awards to the oldest mother and daughter present, Mrs. Guy Wellman, and daughter Mrs. Myron Whipple, youngest mother and daughter, Mrs. Michael Wunder and daughter Shanon, and to the mother with most daughters, Mrs. Guy Wellman also won this silver dollar award as she has five daughters. Adrian Greet Chemical Plant

ADRIAN (AP) — Ground-breaking ceremonies for a new $6 million chemical plant to be built six miles northeast of Adrian will be held a week from Thursday, and will be followed by a "Salute to Industry" banquet here.

The plant is to be built by Stauffer Chemical Co., and it will be represented at the ceremonies by Christian deGugne, chairman; Hans Stauffer, president, and John Stauffer, senior vice president.

Gov. George W. Romney and B. M. Conboy, executive director of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion, are scheduled to represent the state.

Included with Stauffer for honors at the "Salute to Industry" banquet will be four other firms which have announced plants for this area in recent months.

They are General Motors Corp., which plans an upholstery plant at nearby Tecumseh; Dura Corp., which purchased the old Hoover ball bearing plant here; Bidwell Co., a hardware subsidiary of Merillat Woodworking Co., and Peerless Gear Co., which is completing a new plant near Clinton.

Masonville Tops Former Cancer Drive Record

RAPID RIVER — Masonville township topped their last year's cancer donations with $343.30. Last year's cancer contributions were $340.00. Mrs. Ned Short, cancer crusade chairman, was pleased with the township's cooperation with the drive. The volunteers were well received throughout the crusade.

Mrs. Short wishes to remind those who donated to the cancer fund that they are members of the Cancer Society. If one should need help in connection with a cancer illness he may contact the chairman and she will outline what assistance is made available through the cancer foundation.

Ready To Serve

Delta County has had hospital service for 84 years. When it started with the Delta County Hospital on the site of the present St. Francis Hospital in 1880 it was a service for homeless men largely.

There've been lots of changes since then. Babies are no longer born in their mothers' homes. Kitchen table surgery is long past. Even the patient seeking chiefly a rest as solution to a health problem goes to the hospital today because it is specially and uniquely equipped to care for all the problems of the ill person.

From having been an emergency treatment station it has become a health center.

The community of size without a good hospital has a serious deficiency today. It ranks with schools and good community services in the judgment on a community's quality.

This week St. Francis Hospital, which serves a huge area from Powers-Spalding east half way between Escanaba and Menominee is observing National Hospital Week along with the other hospitals of the nation. Its theme "What Price Hospital Preparedness," is a reminder of the ready-to-serve status of the hospital and the cost of this preparedness.

The hospital has emergency drugs at its nursing stations which must be replenished periodically even if not used. It has equipment that is seldom used but always ready, and which a patient could not be asked to pay for on a basis of his usage as related to its cost. It staffs around the clock every day of the year to handle emergencies, like a fire or police department.

John Haines, associate administrator of the hospital, says that an estimated 15 per cent of the hospital's budget of $1,200,000 or $150,000 a year, is spent on readiness to serve.

The hospital lives on payments for patient care. It competes with hospitals elsewhere for the privilege of serving its area's people and it improves its services continually to win their support. Unless it is successful in this effort it cannot be in good condition to serve them in emergencies and no one ever knows when he will be victim of a crisis in which only his local hospital and its staff can save his life.

The hospital has become big business, dependent upon a big flow of money to maintain its services, which cost more than $100,000 a month, more than the entire cost of services for the year when Delta County got its first hospital 84 years ago. Its payroll for two weeks now is more than $25,000.

Despite a gift from the community of $300,000 to help build its new wing a few years ago, it still has a $587,000 mortgage on the new facility. It is planning new expenditures on needed services including a dental operatory, a pulmonary function laboratory and quarters for mentally disturbed patients.

A hospital is always a reflection of the community it serves. St. Francis is a good reflection of a good community, which understands that excellence in medical care today must be equated with support. The true determination on hospital costs is whether the services are effective and St. Francis rates high in this.

CARE Anniversary

May marks an anniversary for CARE - on May 11, 1946, its first food packages were delivered to World War II victims in Europe.

Today, the value of all CARE shipments totals more than $631 million. Through its various feeding programs, CARE is helping to nourish 35 million people. But its main emphasis has shifted to Latin America, Africa, Asia. And on its 18th birthday, CARE is in the midst of a $7 million campaign to send self-help and medical assistance to the sick and poor in 39 countries during 1964.

For millions who live in misery, this aid will mean the tools and skills to help them build a better life—everything from educational supplies to packages of vegetable seeds to grow their own food, from construction equipment for village improvements to teams of doctors and nurses stationed overseas by MEDICO, now part of CARE's service.

Americans who seek a way for personal action in world affairs can mail a check to the regional office of CARE, Guardian Building, Detroit, Mich.

The Doctor Says:

Subject To Control; No Cure

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Since my report of lupus erythematosus, many readers have written asking about a cure. Sad to say, this is a disease which cannot be cured. But, like many other diseases, it can be controlled with judicious treatment so that the victim can enjoy normal living with a minimum of discomfort.

This requires careful adjustment of the dosage of such potent drugs as chloroquine, hydroxychloroquine, and amodiaquin. Short courses of prednisone are often helpful. These drugs cannot be obtained without a physician's prescription.

Q—Is it harmful to take Darvon regularly? It relaxes me and helps me to sleep.

A—Darvon is a brand of dextropropoxyphene. It is a mild and relatively safe depressant and pain reliever. In the usually prescribed dosage it is not harmful. It is not habit-forming.

Q—I have a thyroid deficiency and cortisone has helped me but it has also caused hair to grow on my face. Why is this?

A—This is one of the more common side effects of the long continued use of cortisone.

Q—Will the frequent use of enemas or laxatives cause cancer?

A—No, but by interfering with the normal digestive processes they may lead to colitis and chronic indigestion.

Q—Is Cytran a tranquilizer? If not, what is it for?

A—Cytran is a combination of hormones and drugs. It is used chiefly for premenstrual tension. In this sense it is a type of tranquilizer.

Q—My father died of diabetes at 74. My 24-year-old son has had repeated urine tests—all negative for sugar. What worries me is that he is always thirsty. He can drink a quart of lemonade or ice tea at one sitting. Does this mean that he will get diabetes in later life? Is so much fluid fluid bad for his stomach?

A—If your son's urine was negative for albumin and sugar, he does not have nephritis or diabetes. If his urine is pale and has a low specific gravity (closely approximating that of water) he probably has diabetes insipidus. On the other hand this thirst may be a personal peculiarity with no significance.

The fluids should not harm his stomach. Eating an excessive amount of sweets would be more likely to lead to sugar diabetes in later life than the drinking of a large amount of fluid.

Trouble in the Nursery

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Studies by startled U. S. scientists reveal that the Soviet Union is putting 50 per cent more effort than the United States into learning how to control the energy that's in the H-bomb.

The United States now has 265 scientists on controlled thermonuclear research. The Soviet Union has 600 on this potentially tremendous source of power.

The Russians are investing heavily in new research buildings and in high-powered equipment. The Kurchatov laboratory in Moscow is the largest in the world in fusion research.

The Communist party has ordered that controlled fusion research be put on the first priority list and all monetary ceilings removed.

Soviet scientists already have moved so fast in one crucial fusion control problem, reports a highly placed U. S. nuclear physicist, that their results have sparked a whole series of new ideas in the United States.

Until recently, U. S. scientists have been confident that we were well ahead of the Russians. That may still be true, for the big Soviet push is less than four years old. But with this new Soviet effort, U. S. superiority could disappear in less than five years. Some scientists believe the U. S. S. R. is already ahead.

If the Soviets get there first in fusion control, it would bring a bigger worldwide shock than the first Sputnik. As one scientist puts it, "in the long run it is much more important to solve (the) energy (needs of) mankind forever than just to put a satellite up."

The major problem in controlled fusion is learning how to contain large amounts of the interacting hot gas particles, bringing them toward temperatures equaling those on the sun's surface and concentrate or contain those gases (plasma) in a small enough space with sufficient stability so that fusion will take place continuously.

Scientists have been able to do this only with very small amounts of plasma for tiny periods of time.

Some startling, absolutely new developments were discovered recently during a trip to the Soviet Union by a group of top-flight U. S. government thermonuclear experts. The new developments included:

1. One of the major problems in controlling thermonuclear reactions is to keep the plasma mixture stable so that the production of energy will continue.

U. S. scientists were impressed by an ingenious Soviet development "whereby as soon as the plasma begins to get unstable you reverse some of the magnetic field within about a millionth of a second, so that the conditions are reversed and it becomes stable again. Then, in another millionth of a second, you do it again."

2. Getting the plasma mixture hot enough for fusion to take place is a second major problem. At Kharkov the Americans found the Russians in a key experiment had managed to heat plasma about eight times hotter than we have.

3. Keeping the plasma mixture from escaping is a problem with gases so hot they can "burn" through any container. One way of doing this is by means of a mirror machine, which uses a magnetic field to reflect the escaping gases (plasma) back into the mixture. A Russian mirror machine, similar to one at Livermore, Calif., produces about three times the magnetic field with much simpler apparatus.

But what impressed the U. S. scientists most was the tremendous influx of bright young scientists and engineers into the Soviet - controlled thermonuclear research program.

Memory Lane

By J. R. LOWELL

Ten Years Ago

Mrs. Albert E. Ellsworth, prominent in church and social activities here and a resident of this area nearly all of her life, died this morning. Mrs. Ellsworth was the daughter of the late James Blake, a widely known Upper Peninsula lumber operator.

Walter Burns, former mayor of Manistique and for years active in municipal and county affairs, resigned his position on the city council at last night's meeting.

Valedictorian and salutatorian of Rapid River High School's graduating class this year are Gail Rushford and Willard Mattson.

Twenty Years Ago

There will be a great many changes in the faculty of Escanaba's schools this year. To date a total of 22 resignations have been submitted and accepted by the school board.

The Rev. James G. Ward, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will preach the baccalaureate sermon at services here in June.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, pioneer residents of Stonington, will observe their golden wedding anniversary on May 12. The occasion will be in the nature of an open house to their friends at the home of their son, George Jr., at 328 S. 18th St.

Thirty Years Ago

The "Greater Detroit," the largest passenger boat playing the Great Lakes will dock at the Escanaba municipal pier on June 10 and is scheduled to remain here from noon to midnight.

A carload of flour, 40,000 pounds, has arrived in Escanaba and will be distributed among the needy of the community.

The Arthur J. Beauvais home at Masonville was completely destroyed by fire last night. Fire was caused by a lighting bolt and the family had difficulty in leaving the blazing structure.

PAY THE PEELERS

Reading Andy P. Olafson's letter recently we note mention of the P.P.U. Continuing on, we learn the P.P.U. is the Post Peelers Union. The post peelers do represent quite a stratum of our northwoods society. Some peel during the winter and early spring merely for outdoor exercise, for this is all they get. Others peel to supplement their all-too-small pension, and some work in a cedar yard through necessity.

Being handicapped, it is hard for them to obtain other work. It would be a wonderful thing if these men made at least the minimum wage. The ability to pay the minimum wage would also be a great credit to those who operate our various cedar craft enterprises. It would make them patriots in our current "War On Poverty."

Last winter a social worker was informed by one of the cedar craft companies' office workers that the peelers made up to $60 a week. To do so in five days a man would have to peel 240 icy and frozen woods-run posts a day. A working day is 8 hours by law; a week 40 hours.

To enable post producers to make both ends meet while paying for trucks, tractors and other equipment the price on posts could also stand a raise.

In another cedar yard not far from Escanaba the manager has said he has men who can peel 300 and 400 icy posts in eight hours. Shades of Paul Bunyan!

So why don't we organize another, calling it the A.T.T.T. or Amalgamated Tail Tale Tellers. Mayhops also the P.P.P.A.P.A., Poor Post Producers Anti-Poverty Association.

Thanking Andy, I am

Editor's note: No one wishes more than the cedar yard operators that there was a bigger margin of profit in cedar posts. The fence companies have offered a market for posts after they lost most of their historic old market for fencing farm fields. And the rustic fencing business is fiercely competitive.

Fence makers, we opine, are trying for survival not citations for patriotism in the war on poverty. Some have automated and dispensed with hand peelers.

Property Value Increase Noted

LANSING (AP) — Figures showing the state equalized valuation of all property in Michigan has increased by $554.3 million since 1963 were released Monday by the State Tax Commission.

For purposes of local taxation in the state, the tax commission recommended county-by-county property value estimates totaling $26,351,877,400, compared to $25,797,495,100 in 1963. This is an increase of 2.15 per cent.

The increase was described as a commission spokesman as "about average." He attributed it almost entirely to new building and "general prosperity" in the state.

The State Equalization Board will hold a hearing May 25 in Lansing. County and local tax officials may appear with inquiries and objections regarding the tax commission estimates.

The board is made up of the tax commission's three members plus four other persons appointed by the governor.

The tax commission spokesman said four counties—Arenac, Hillsdale, Osceola and Marquette—showed sharp increases as the result of equalization studies in the past year.

In several Upper Peninsula counties, the recommended state equalization valuation dropped as a result of a new method of assessing mining properties at the same rate as other kinds of property.

Sharp increases resulting from the building boom were shown in Michigan's more populous counties.

Among these were Berrien, $472.7 to $490.9 million; Eaton, $142.6 to $149.8 million; Genesee, $1,376,471,100 to $1,401,422,000; Ingham, $685.3 to $706 million; Macomb, $1,437,731,300 to $1,508,636,400; Midland, $279.0 to $2,308,684,200; Saginaw, $658.8 to $675 million; Washtenaw $678.2 to $691.6 million.

Ann Landers Accidents Mean He Is Careless

Dear Ann Landers: I had a good laugh reading that letter from the woman whose husband used to hit her during his sleep. After a while it got me to thinking, and now I'm wondering about my old man. He hits me when he is awake.

It is always "accidental" — or so he says. And I really can't prove it isn't. A few weeks ago he was hanging a picture and dropped it on my head. I thought he had fractured my skull. He has burned me with cigars and hit me with the garden rake. Last year he almost ran me over with the car. (He was backing out of the driveway and didn't see me trimming the hedges.)

Please tell me if you think these accidents mean anything. — D. F.

Dear D. F.: Yes, they mean something. They mean your husband is careless awkward and accident prone. They might also mean that he has mixed emotions about you.

My advice is to keep alert when your husband is in the vicinity and signal your position frequently. If anything like the car incident occurs again insist that he get some professional help.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a very good card player and enjoy almost any kind of game. I usually win.

These last several months I have not been invited to many card games. My husband commented on this last night and said because I win too often. He said it would be a good idea if I let others win once in a while.

This seems wrong. I would not want to play cards with anyone who would let ME win. I feel every person should play his best. Letting someone win is a form of cheating. When I expressed this view he said I was wrong. Am I? Or is he? —NO FAKER.

Dear N: Your husband is wrong on two counts.

First, I don't believe you are being invited less often because you win too frequently. I suspect you are not a gracious winner, which is something quite different. People like to compete against good players because it helps improve their own game.

Second, playing less than your best is dishonest. Everyone should play to win.

Dear Ann Landers: We have four children under 12 years of age. Since February at least one of my brood has been at home with a cold, the mumps, the flu, measles, or chicken pox. Yesterday when I went to school on parents' visiting day I learned why my kinds were always sick.

I counted a dozen children who should have been at home. Four boys were coughing violently, five others were sneezing and blowing their noses and could not breathe with their mouths closed. Two 7-year olds had their heads down on their desks and looked feverish. One little girl had spots which I am sure were measles.

I am furious that some mothers are so anxious to get rid of their children that they push them out the door when they should be home in bed. They do not care if their sick children infect others. What can be done about this? —WET HEN.

Dear Wet: Almost every school has a nurse. The teacher is supposed to send the children who are ill to the nurse. The nurse decides if the child should be sent home. Since this procedure is obviously not being practiced in the school your children attend you should discuss it with the principal.

Whenever you get 25 kids together at least four are going to have running noses. If your children get plenty of rest and proper nourishment you are not protecting them to the best of your ability.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers And Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Leukemia Fund Aid Is Sought

A family that used to live in Escanaba has reached back to its beginnings with a plea for aid for a son, little Andy Thomas Andekian, who is suffering leukemia and has only about 4 months to live, said Dr. Erwin Ford of UCLA Hospital, Los Angeles, Calif.

The child has received 52 blood transfusions in attempt to save his life and Dr. P. A. Sullivan, chief resident in cancer research at UCLA has said that if he can have 40 to 48 more blood transfusions before Sept. 3 he may have a chance to survive. Appeals for a fund to pay for blood haven't been reached and the First Southern Baptist Church of Upland, Calif., stresses that time is crucial.

Andy Andekian was born in St. Francis Hospital, Escanaba, Sept. 30, 1959, and went to California with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Andekian, when he was four months old. The mother is the former Mary Ann Turner of Escanaba and the child's maternal grandmother is Mrs. E. A. Woolcock, 207 N. 14th St., Escanaba and his paternal grandmother is the former Ruth Ann Bishop of Escanaba. The child has two brothers.

His father is employed by the Kaiser Steel Foundation at Fontana, Calif.

Correspondence about Andy may be addressed to the Andy Andekian Leukemia Fund, 1166 N. Campus Ave., Upland, Calif., the First Southern Baptist Church there announces.

Feed Grain Lack Affecting Milk

Dairy herd improvement records received in the Alger County Extension office for April indicate that the lack of feed grains is affecting production in dairy herds. With 15 herds and 400 cows being tested, there are many indications that production is being affected by the lack of feed grains.

Leading in butterfat production for April is the Wilho Laurila herd of Limestone with 45 pounds of butterfat per cow, followed by William Debelak, Traunik, 43; Gunnar Benson, Eben, 40; Ed Stone, Trenary, 40; Edgar Williams, Trenary, 37; Urho Pokela, Traunik, 34; Walter Maki, Eben, 33; and John Henning, Traunik, 32.

Mrs. Melvin Carlson, 1801 1st Ave. S., is a surgical patient at St. Vincent's Hospital, Green Bay. Her room is 441.

Hospital Stay Of Youth Brief; Elderly 15 Days

The current observance of National Hospital Week by St. Francis Hospital includes a public look at trends in hospitalization here compared with metropolitan areas downstate.

St. Francis reports that only 10 per cent of its income is from Blue Cross payment of hospital bills. This is in sharp contrast with payment of nearly 70 per cent of the income hospitals in the Detroit area by Blue Cross.

Private patients payments to the hospital account for 18 per cent of St. Francis' income, commercial insurance 64 per cent and government payments 8 per cent.

John Haines, associate administrator of the hospital, said that some commercial insurance coverage of hospital expenses is grossly inadequate and not understood by its buyers, who think they are adequately protected. He said some policies submitted to the hospital in payment of hospital bills provide as little as $4 a day for patient care.

"Our cheapest bed is $15 a day," said Haines "and this is $6 a day below our actual cost, which is a minimum of $21 a day. The allowance for services is also low in some policies and hospitals must make up with their labor and drug fees what they lose on their room rentals."

St. Francis Hospital had operating income of $598,919 for the first 6 months of the current fiscal year, and other income of $19,050 for a total of $617,969.

It had expenses of $611,930, of which $341,458 was for payroll, $219,140 for supplies and expenses, $35,222 for depreciation and $16,112 for interest.

It had 2,902 patients from July 1, 1963 to Dec. 31, 1963 and cared for them 20,749 patient days.

Its patients 13 years and younger were 836 and they stayed an average of 4.8 days, and its patients 65 years and older numbered 477 and they stayed an average of 15.1 days in the hospital. Average patient stay was 7.1 days.

There were 825 operations in the 6 months and 100 emergency cases admitted. Average per day cost per patient was $29.50.

The hospital has 188 full-time employees and 68 part-time employees and 15 Sisters on duty.

'Hardy Bulbs' First In Series Of Garden Guides

Gertrude S. Wister's charmingly descriptive book "Hardy Garden Bulbs" has been selected to begin the series of Garden Guides to be published by B. P. Dutton & Co. The 182-page volume, well illustrated with 24 photographs and 13 line drawings, is designed for both beginning and experienced gardeners.

The ten chapters cover the selection and use of dependable varieties of bulbs, as well as general culture, with specific chapters on Early Spring Bulbs, Hyacinths, Daffodils, Tulips, Bulbs for Late Spring and Early Summer, Lilies, Late Summer and Autumn Bulbs, and Bulbs to Bloom Indoors.

A most helpful feature, which only an expert can provide, is Mrs. Wister's excellent lists for chapters on specific bulbs that reveal at a glance the type, color and blooming time of each variety. She has also included a glossary of gardening terms on bulb cultivation, bibliography and a list of nursery supply houses as recommended sources for special bulbs.

The author of "Hardy Garden Bulbs" is well known in the horticultural world. At present, she is Assistant Director of the Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation at Swarthmore College. A recent contributor to the Daffodil Yearbook of the Royal Horticultural Society, and editor of the American Daffodil Society Yearbook for the past three years, the author (as Gertrude Smith) was long the editor of the monthly magazine of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

"Hardy Garden Bulbs" (price $4.50) will appeal to the novice and the adventuresome—to the indoor and outdoor gardener, who will seek the same satisfactions of pleasure and beauty from bulbs as Mrs. Gertrude Wister during her ship, infant welfare, delinquency, social adjustment, industrial and city beautification, safety, youth, gerontology.

During war years special departments were set up dealing with war nutrition, hospital guild, bandages, nurse recruitment, salvage and assistance to the Red Cross.

Human Resource Development Is Goal Of League

At the Monday evening meeting of the League of Women Voters held at the home of Mrs. Sherwood Trotter, Mrs. R. L. Johnson shared highlights of the 26th national convention April 20-24 in Pittsburgh, with the group. Mrs. Johnson was a delegate from the local League.

An unexpected highlight was the visit of President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson on April 24. Both spoke briefly and President Johnson set Sept. 13-19 as national League of Women Voters Week.

The convention adopted an experimental arrangement of program, with "development of human resources" as the new program field; and with a continuation of the programs on the United Nations, foreign economic policy, and water resources, on a limited basis.

This was the largest national convention in League history. There were about 1300 voting delegates, and nearly 1,900 in attendance with 792 local Leagues represented. Mrs. Donald Jacobs of the Houghton-Hancock League, and Mrs. Johnson represented the two U. P. Leagues.

The program will be presented to the morning unit at the home of Mrs. Johnson on Wednesday at 9:15.

Globe Girdler Lands Safely

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Globe-circling Joan Merriam landed her crippled plane safely at the Oakland Airport today.

The Coast Guard had two planes escorting the 27-year-old Long Beach, Calif. housewife for almost the last 100 miles of her flight from Hawaii.

She accomplished a feat Amelia Earhart tried unsuccessfully to achieve 27 years ago. Miss Earhart vanished in the western Pacific.

Miss Merriam's plane touched down at 9:12 a.m.

Bad weather and engine troubles had plagued her from the start of her flight — from the same airport — March 17. Miss Merriam feathered the propeller of her right engine approaching the U.S. mainland, coming in on her left engine.

Coast Guard escorts rendezvoused with her at 7:36 a.m., after she radioed she was in trouble.

LaCrosse Shows Escanaba How To Keep Station

Does Michigan have the wrong senators?

When the U. S. Weather Bureau announced that it was closing the weather station which it had operated in Escanaba for 93 years, both U. S. Senators Pat McNamara and Philip A. Hart contacted the Weather Bureau in Washington and were told it was being done in the interests of economy.

When the same action was taken at LaCrosse, Wis., Senator William P. Proxmire (D-Wis.) protested and petitions were circulated in the community protesting the Weather Bureau's action.

Now Proxmire announces that "although adjustments in personnel will be made, I have been assured that the Weather Bureau will remain open."

The LaCrosse Weather Station was to be closed June 1, leaving Wisconsin with three others. Citizens groups protested the proposed closing in letters and petitions.

Escanaba City Manager George Harvey and the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, the Michigan Conservation Department, the Escanaba Daily Press and other agencies have protested the closing of the Escanaba station, which has left the Upper Peninsula served by two weather stations, at Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie. It has become impossible to obtain local weather condition reports from the Weather Bureau except for recorded telephone messages.

The Weather Bureau's own representatives have questioned whether it is not now spending substantially as much in maintaining its reporting services in the Escanaba Federal Building as it would cost to staff the office for public service on a limited basis. The Weather Bureau hired fee observers to read the instruments at the local station and report data to the Weather Bureau office at Green Bay.

The reports are made available to the wire services at Detroit and come back to the U. P. in big area generalities which aren't much better than the Old Farmer's Almanac.

Roy L. Fox, regional director of the weather service at Kansas City, announced April 23 that the LaCrosse station would close and there was little chance the decision could be reversed. It had been in operation since 1872.

Fox told an Escanaba meeting the same thing about the Escanaba station, but the LaCrosse reconsideration indicates that such actions aren't final and the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce will make another request for reopening of the Escanaba Station.

Mother's Day Tea At School

GARDEN — The annual Mother's Day tea was held Thursday afternoon in the dining room of the school by the Home Economics classes. Mothers were presented corsages by their daughters. Tea was served from a table decorated with daffodils and yellow candles. The sewing projects accomplished during the year were on display and some of the girls modeled the clothing that they made. Teachers were also guests at the tea.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eggert of 12 Hill St. Apt. 2, San Francisco, Calif., are the proud parents of a 7 pound, 7 ounce baby boy, William John born on Mothers Day. The mother is the former Paula Roberts of Manistiquie. The baby is the first grandchild of Mrs. William Eggert Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil Nichols and daughter Darcy of LaGrange, Ill. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Dotisch.

Saigon Guards Defense Chief

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara arrived in Saigon today for a 36-hour visit and plunged into a series of heavily guarded conferences on the progress of the war in Viet Nam.

McNamara raced from one conference to another in Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's car, with flak jackets piled on the floor, on the seat and behind his back for protection against Communist terrorist bullets, hand grenades and mines.

He was accompanied everywhere by a motorcade of vehicles bristling with police and a truck loaded with black-beretted Special Forces soldiers, their guns at the ready.

U.S. and Vietnamese security were taking no chances since discovery of a plot on McNamara's life. Viet Cong agents were caught Saturday night trying to mine a bridge the secretary was to cross.

McNamara on his arrival conferred for two hours with Lodge. Then, after a quick lunch at Lodge's residence, he began a series of conferences with top U.S. military officials.

Killing Of Two Officers Denied

DETROIT (AP) — Ex-convict Bruce Walter Leikett denied Monday he was the killer of two slain Fredericksburg, Va., policemen and a North Brunswick, N.J., filling station attendant, police reported.

Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor John A. Mowatt said Leikett, 26, made the denial at Wayne County General Hospital where he is a police prisoner. Though Mowatt said Leikett admitted he was near Tuesday's slaying scene of the policemen.

Mowatt said Leikett told officers he and a man known to him only as "Dominic" were near the Fredericksburg shopping center where the officers were shot to death and that the two planned a break-in at one shopping center store.

Leikett, recently freed from Lewisburg, Pa., penitentiary, was badly injured in a car collision during a flight from police Friday. Police said they found the slain officers' guns and handcuffs in Leikett's car and also a gun of the type used to kill the policemen and the filling station man.

Stroh Brewery Employees Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Approximately 600 employees of Stroh Brewing Co. were on strike today. A company spokesman said another 400 would face layoff if the strike continues.

The workers struck Monday after the suspension of two men on management charges they were carrying out a "slow-down."

Peter W. Hann, business representative of Brewery Workers Local 181, said the employees objected to an increased work load.

The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist Church will have a cleaning bee Thursday evening in preparation for a party sale this weekend.

Hoffa Expenses To Be Checked

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department prepared today to dig into Teamsters Union financial records to find out how much the union has paid in legal expenses for its off-indicted president, James R. Hoffa.

"We are going into the various cases involved," said a spokesman for Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, who announced the unprecedented investigation Monday.

Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds said the investigation may take at least six weeks because of a maze of financial dealings between Hoffa and his various lawyers in a number of states.

While the Labor Department has conducted thousands of investigations into the alleged improper use of union funds, a source said the Hoffa case is the first involving the question of legal fees.

The investigation, under the 1959 Landrum-Griffin labor law, was viewed as another blow to the sorely beset Hoffa. He was recently sentenced to eight years in prison on one federal charge, a decision he is appealing, and he is now on trial in Chicago on a charge of misusing union funds. There are also increasing signs of unrest among his 1.7 million union members.

The amount of Hoffa's legal expenses has been estimated by labor sources from hundreds of thousands of dollars up to $1 million.

U.S. Foe Leads Panama Voting

PANAMA (AP) — Official returns from more than half the vote in Sunday's presidential election gave a commanding lead today to government candidate Marco A. Robles, advocate of a tough policy toward American rights in the Panama Canal Zone.

Electoral tribunal figures from 704 of 1,144 precincts gave Robles 86,447 votes to 73,131 for Dr. Arnulfo Arias, a slight favorite before the election.

About half the estimated 130,000 votes cast in Panama Province, where Arias had his greatest strength, were yet to be counted. It was believed the former president would have to take more than 70 per cent of the uncounted votes in the capital province to win.

Sullenness replaced the carnival atmosphere that had prevailed in the Arias camp. Some hinted at government manipulation, claiming that the Electoral Tribunal gave Robles an early edge to provoke Arias followers into violence. Then the National Guard could jail Arias and other leaders of his party.

A Robles victory could portend difficulty for the United States in negotiations on the Panama Canal treaty. Although all seven presidential candidates demand revision of the treaty and it was not an issue in the campaign, Arias was considered more sympathetic to the United States than Robles.

Gladstone Girl, Struck By Youth, Will Be Scarred

An Escanaba youth, 16, who drove away an automobile and assaulted a Gladstone girl, is to be questioned further today by Delta County juvenile court authorities in their investigation of the case.

The mother of the 14-year-old Gladstone girl in clarifying the early-morning incident at her home, said she was awakened at 3:30 a. m. Sunday when she heard her daughter call to her that she was bleeding.

The girl was in her blood-spattered bed. The youth had struck her on the head with a bottle filled with colored water from the dresser. Also in the bed was a piece of metal, the base of a jack from the stolen car. The mother said the metal had probably been hurled at her daughter, but had missed its mark.

A doctor was summoned and the girl was treated. She will be scarred and plastic surgery will be necessary, the mother reported.

The Gladstone girl knows the sister of the youth but is scarcely acquainted with the boy and has never had a date with him, the mother said.

The stolen car was linked with the youth and the assault when officers found blood on the keys and steering wheel after the auto was abandoned in Escanaba. The youth admitted the assault in a statement to State Police.

We drove 3,243 miles to make a point about our Super Turbine transmission

You can do it on the way to the grocery store

Would we drive a Buick with a Super Turbine transmission* all the way from Pasadena to New York City just to win Class C in the Mobil Economy Run?

Of course. And just in case anyone failed to get the message, we did it twice again. And won Class D and Class G. In all, Buick entered 4 classes, and won 3—more than any other make of car. (Remember when people used to think Buicks used a lot of gas?) Did we make our point about the Super Buick Motor Division drive a Buick.

Turbine transmission? You bet. Obviously you aren't planning to drive 3,243 miles to prove your new Buick is economical. And you can't expect to get as many miles per gallon as the experts in the Economy Run. Still, it is nice to know you can win the economy run around town. And the good looks prize at the same time. MANISTIQUE Field Expands Its Enterprises

The current issue of Newsweek magazine tells of the progress of Field Enterprises, whose current expansion plans include a capital investment program of millions in its Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. plant in Manistique.

When Marshall Field Jr., bought the Chicago Daily News for $22 million in 1959, says Newsweek, scores of reader protested to New Publisher John S. Knight. "Wasn't it bad enough that Field already owned the Sun-Times, a bland morning tabloid full of chopped-down wire copy and little else?"

One citizen wrote Knights "You have sold the thinking residents of Chicago down the river of mediocrity."

But residents of Chicago aren't inking twice these days. Since Field silted the Sun-Times in his glistening, stainless-steel plant on the Chicago River, both papers have improved markedly. And in the same period the 48-year-old millionaire has established one of the fastest growing publishing empires in the nation, says Newsweek.

"Called Field Enterprises, Inc., it embraces besides the News and Sun-Times, the profitable World Book Encyclopedia, an expanding newspaper syndicate (Ann Landers, Cartoonist Bill Mauldin, etc.) a Michigan paper mill (at Manistique) a science-news service complete with astronauts, and, now, former ABC vice president Sterling C. Quinlan. The last acquisition may be the most far-reaching."

"Red Quinlan's task is simple: to put Field into the radio and television business. In that pursuit he is currently hustling around the nation buttonholing FCC commissioners, station owners, and newspapermen, doing what he calls A study of the types of cooperation between newspapers and radio-TV."

Field says, "We're flirting with the idea of getting into electronics. I don't know how yet."

The exact figures are secret but last year Field Enterprises had total sales of about $200 million. Despite his insistence that newspaper profits be plowed back, the organization allows it netted $10 million after taxes.

Missing Fishtug Back In Harbor

PORT AUSTIN (AP) — The commercial fishing tug "Scotty," missing over Sunday night, arrived in harbor here Monday.

The tug owner, Don Brennan, 30, and his brother, Richard 33, of Port Huron, said they did not know they had been reported missing and were being sought.

The Brennans said they had decided against trying to get to harbor in the dark Sunday night and dropped anchor at Alabaster until daybreak.

Rotary Hears Holy Land Talk

John A. Lemmer, retired Escanaba school superintendent shared with members of the Manistique Rotary Club Monday colored pictures and impressions on a tour of the Holy Land, which is really "two countries, neighbors but enemies."

The Jerusalem of Jordan and Israel were described. Material included that on the Herman Gessner "Nahala," a plot of homes in Israel. The settlement section honors Gessner for his aid in the Zionist movement. A former Escanaba and owner of the Fair Store, Gessner raised considerable funds to aid the re-settlement in Israel in 1948 and after his death, Phillip Stein took over the work, Lemmer said.

He commented on the pleasure of finding an area which appreciates an Escanaban's efforts that far away, and also the red, white and blue placards in that country, commemorating American financial aid. South Germany and Luxembourg also were countries which acknowledged and appreciated American aid, he said.

The rivalries of the two countries for water in the Holy Land, and the shrines and memorials in the land where Jesus lived and taught were discussed and depicted. Israel has developed farm lands, including collective units called "Kibbutzes" and industry is being sought. Peanut farms are included in the nahalas, or small plots such as that named in honor of the late Mr. Gessner.

Jordan has many landless, roofless, some refugees from Israel. At a Rotary meeting there, Lemmer said he found many who spoke English and asked about American sports.

The speaker, introduced by Charles Varnum, said he had not obtained the Jordanian side of the dispute, but noted Israel had done much in its 14 years to progress. Most of the people farm, he said. U.S. aid is given to both countries.

Jordan does not seem to have done as much.

"If America was a melting pot, Israel is a pressure cooker," said Lemmer, noting that the only export is surplus talent. In many ways the country is a dictatorship, but there is freedom of speech. The devotion, determination, faith, hope and charity of the country were impressive, he said.

"The country has the lowest mortality rate in the world, has developed fine gardens, a marvelous university and technological institute. Jews from 60 countries, many of them professional people have gone there, with some 'stress migrants' due to persecution at home. In recent months there have been many from South America, due to beginning signs of anti-Semitism. The people remember Germany, Russia and Hungary," he said.

The pictures included Nazareth and the spot where Jesus is believed to have been born, the place where he carried his Cross, the Sepulchre, the Cenacle, other Shrines, including a Crusaders' St. Joseph Church and other Holy Land scenes.
